

THE WEEKLY UPDATE

THE NEWSLETTER OF OHIO UNIVERSITY
DEPT. OF SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM

October 6, 2008

Professional Development Forum

This Monday, October 6th, Chi Sigma Iota (an international counseling honor society) is hosting a Professional Development Forum. Counselors from each specialty (school, rehab, and clinical and mental health) will be there to speak about their experiences and answer questions from the audience.

Anyone interested in the counseling field or similar career paths are encouraged to attend. The time will be from 7pm-8pm at McCracken Hall Room 234. For any further information, please contact Marissa Mizer (CSI President) at mizerm@ohio.edu.

Panel Discussion

All teaching assistants and graduate students are cordially invited to attend a panel discussion on:

"DIVERSITY, ACCESS AND EQUITY AT OHIO UNIVERSITY"

The event will take place from 1:00 to 2:30 pm, Thursday, October 9 at the Friends of the Library Room/Alden Library.

For more information, please contact Laurie Hatch, Director, Center for Teaching & Learning and Professor of Sociology at 597-2700, hatchl@ohio.edu or visit <http://www.ohiou.edu/ctl>

International Career Opportunities!

Foreign Service Officer Adrienne O'Neal, speaking about internships with the Department of State and careers in the Foreign Service, will offer two information sessions on Wednesday, October 8. The first will be from 6-7pm and the second from 8-9pm, both in the Baker Center Theater. A reception will be held from 7:00-8:00pm.

Ms. O'Neal will also have a table at the Career Fair (Baker Ballroom) on October 8. For any questions, please find attached flier or contact Greg Emery, Director of Global Leadership Center at 740-597-2794.

Interested in an internship or career in the U.S. Foreign Service? Attend an info session!

Adrienne O'Neal is a veteran Foreign Service Officer with the personal rank of Minister-Counselor. She began her career in 1983, and has served in Italy, Argentina, Mozambique, Brazil and Portugal, where she was Deputy Chief of Mission until July 2007.

Adrienne O'Neal

Foreign Service Officer

Wednesday, October 8

First Session: 6-7pm

Reception: 7-8pm

Second Session: 8-9pm

Baker Center Theater

Second Floor

Learn about internships with the State Department and Foreign Service career opportunities!

This event is organized by
The Global Leadership Center at Ohio University for information 740-597-2794 or www.ohio.edu/glc