

THE WEEKLY UPDATE

THE NEWSLETTER OF OHIO UNIVERSITY
DEPT. OF SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM

March 02, 2009

The Sara Ullman Memorial Summer Internship

The Sara Katherine Ullman Memorial Internship is offering an opportunity for students to participate in a summer internship with Amnesty International in Washington D.C. The internship provides $2,000-$3,000 to cover expenses for young students interested in human rights and international affairs. Attached are the formal announcement and an application form for interested candidates.

UNICEF Ohio Chapter Fundraising Event

The UNICEF Ohio Chapter is organizing a fundraising event on March 6, from 6-8pm at Baker Multicultural Center. The focus of this quarter is on "creating awareness of global children's plight". Please see the attached flyer for more information.

Education & Islam in Southeast Asia

The Global Awareness Program presents a lecture on "education and Islam in Southeast Asia". If interested to learn on this issue, please stop by the Multicultural Center, Baker Center, on March 4, from 4-5:50pm.

International Women's Day Festival

Times: 2:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Mar 08, 2009

Campus: Athens

Location: Baker Ballroom

Free event! Please come for an afternoon of performances, speeches, education, activism, giveaways, feminism, and fun! Children's activities will be provided. All are invited to attend! For more information contact the Women's Center at womenscenter@ohio.edu or 740-593-9625.

Night of Music for Pop-Wuj Projects

The Immigrants Rights Committee with the Latino Student Union is inviting OU students and staff members to attend a night of music for pop-wuj projects at Jackie O's bar; Wednesday, March 4, 2009 at 10pm. Funds raised goes for a stove project and a day care center in the highlands of Guatemala (Please see the attached flyer for more information).